

Chamber of Cluttered Confusion

By Allyssa Peterson

Asylum is where y'all are meant to be
Abashed when they point out your crazy
Apprehend yourself my child
Amen you are unquestionably wild
Addled when they first comprehend
Adversity as they define you
Aegis as you do not have one
Albeit you are your own
Allegiance to yourself and only yourself
Allay as they can not provide
Apathy when you cross their mind
Apprise their kin as not to see you
Artifice as your sins may be true
Atone your boisterous cries for mercy
Aplomb your body before they come
Affirm your innocence for these people
Avarice as they are you may not leave
Abeyance as you may be
Abide their every word as they decide
Abyss is where you'll be
